HARMONY MARKS NOMINATIONS IN REPUBLICANS

Nominations for officers of the Republican clubs for two years came off with general harmony and quietude last night on this island, comprising the fourth and fifth representative districts. In only one or two precincts are there major contests — that is for the presidency.

The most notable of these is in the fourth of the fourth, where Robert W. Shingle had three rivals put up against him — General J. H. Soper, the present incumbent, George A. Davis and Samuel F. Chillingworth.

In the first of the fourth Allison F. Clark and E. A. Berndt are left in the field for the presidency, the present incumbent, E. A. Douthitt, and Ed Towsie having withdrawn, but it is probable that one of the two candidates will retire before the election next Friday night. There are contests for several minor positions in this as in some other precincts which will likely be fought out, for fun if nothing else.

Below is a list of results in the town precincts and as many of the country ones as reports could be secured from before the page closed for the press:
